WELT WILL MET PROF. TAFT

Sept. 29.—No campaign actively bearing pictures of Roosevelt, William H.
Charles E. Hughes will be best at the Union League in honor of the Residential candidate next

Tuesday evening, it was learned tonight.
Friends of Mr. Roosevelt have intimated to Chairman W. R. Willcox that undue emphasis has been placed upon the fact that the colonel and Professor Taft will meet at the reception for the first time in the field of politics since the Progressive party was born in 1912.
The suggestion has been made to the committee arranging the reception that the real purpose of the gathering is to permit Republicans to pay their respects to the party's standard bearer in the present campaign and not to provide occasion for a reconciliation between Colonel Roosevelt and Mr. Taft.

The colonel is an honorary member of the Union League club and accepted the invitation to the reception because it is to be given in honor of Mr. Hughes, it was explained. While he will shake hands with Professor Taft, it will be the same manner of greeting as was extended when the two met a year ago at the funeral of Professor Lounsbury at New Haven.
Mr. Roosevelt declared today that "five-sixths of the Progressives are for Mr. Hughes," and predicted the election of the Republican candidate.

CROWN PRINCE MOST HOPEFUL

Says the Allies Cannot Break Through on the Somme
Before Winter.

Berlin, Sept. 28, 11:30 a. m., via London, Sept. 29, 10:10 a. m., (delayed).—The latest fighting on the Somme evidently has not shaken the confidence of German military leaders in their ability to prevent the breach of their line. The Berliner Tagblatt's special war correspondent interviewed Crown Prince Rupprecht of Bavaria, commander of the German forces on the Somme, Tuesday.
The crown prince is quoted as having said that since the offensive began the entente allies had gained some ground, but there could be no thought of this decisively changing the situation.

"It is impossible to predict how things will go hereafter," said Prince Rupprecht, "but one thing is certain, namely, that we have everything so thoroughly prepared that we are able to contemplate the situation with equanimity, whatever comes. The offensive will certainly not reach an early end."

"We can reckon upon an offensive of great persistence and with heavy attacks, accompanied by an enormous expenditure of ammunition. But we have taken precautions. Our artillery has been reinforced and likewise our aeroplane corps, and our flyers have had fine successes in the last few days, although they have had hard fighting against increased numbers.
Our artillery derives advantages from the successful work of the aeroplanes, after having formerly been much exposed to observation by hostile aviators."

"Our troops have been striking with the utmost strength and the enemy has found the nut too hard to crack. It is my distinct opinion that the enemy is trying to force a decision at this spot and during this year, and he has not yet succeeded.
He will have to put up with a winter campaign and continue his fighting next year."

PLAN PARADE FOR
SARA BARD FIELD
Salt Lake, Sept. 30.—Arrangements are being made by the Women's party here for a parade and luncheon in honor of Sara Bard Field, the suffrage worker, when she arrives in Salt Lake Wednesday, October 4.
It is proposed to have a parade of women on the day of arrival of the distinguished visitor, and it is expected that there will be thirty automobiles in line.
A luncheon in her honor will be given at the Hotel Utah at 11 p. m., Thursday, October 5. The committee in charge of this luncheon is composed of Mrs. Elizabeth C. Jenkins, chairman; Margaret Zane Cherdon, Mrs.
William S. Storey, Mrs. Elizabeth

Coray, Mrs. Richard W. Madsen, Mrs.
J. J. Daynes, Jr., Mrs. O. C. Beebe, Mrs. Howard H. Larson, Miss Carolyn Williams, Mrs. J. R. Davis, Mrs. A. R.
Barnes, Mrs. P. S. Witche, Mrs.
George Sehard and Mrs. Charles Livingston.

It is announced that those desiring to make reservations for the luncheon should phone Mrs. Jenkins.

The woman's organization held a well-attended meeting at the hall on Main street last night, which was addressed by Mrs. E. M. Garnett and Miss Jane Pincus.

There will be a meeting of the organization at the home of Mrs. Alonzo B. Irvine, 178 A street, Tuesday, at 3 p. m.

Jimmie giggled when the teacher read the story of the man who swam across the Tiber three times before breakfast.

"You do not doubt that a trained swimmer could do that, do you?"
"No, sir," answered Jimmie, "but I wonder why he did not make it four and get back to the side where his clothes were."

From October 9-16, at Cleveland, Ohio, United Garment Workers of America will convene.

he average annual wage of our railway employees is $526.

UNITED STATES IS CRITICISED

Berlin Newspapers Declare Americans Are on the Side of the Allies.

Berlin, Sept. 29, via London, Sept.
30, 1 a. m.—Immediately on the heels of the utterances of the imperial chancellor in the reichstag concerning the submarine campaign, the afternoon newspapers generally print strong criticisms of the neutrality of the United States, based on the news of the death of the American aviator, Kiffin Rockwell, and the presence of other American aviators on the western front.

They connect this evidence of American sympathy for the entente allies and the supplying of war materials by firms in the United States as an indication of the futility of concessions to the American standpoint with regard to submarines. They declare that these facts show how American respect for neutrality is vanishing and how America is misusing the present form of submarine warfare to cover the active participation of American concerns in the war on the side of the entente allies.

LORD CECIL ON THE CHANCELLOR

London, Sept. 29, 7:15 p. m.—The address of the German imperial chancellor, Dr. von Bethmann-Hollweg in the reichstag is more remarkable for what it omitted than for what it said, according to Lord Robert Cecil, minister of war trade, who, in discussing the speech with the Associated Press today, declared the most significant fact in connection with the chancellor's utterance was his failure to mention Belgium. Lord Robert said:
"There is a very definite change in the tone of the speech over the previous efforts of the chancellor. The talk of a complete German victory is entirely absent. Another remarkable thing was that there was not a word about Belgium. The significance of this is probably that he was unable to say anything about Belgium, as his listeners can be assumed to be the whole world and he was bound to offend a section of it if Belgium was mentioned. And, equally, he would offend his own people if he expressed a determination to give up that country."

Nothing Really New.
"Dr. von Bethmann-Hollweg's denunciation of England contained nothing really new. It was merely the old trick of attempting to convince our enemies that we are trading on their efforts and bleeding them to death in the process, but recent events on the Somme ought to convince him of his error. The idea that we want world supremacy is fantastic."

Discussing this phase of the chancellor's speech, Lord Robert declared:

"You will note that in this race for commercial supremacy England is the chief opponent to be feared, the United States being left out altogether."
Lord Robert continued:

"I note in the portion of the speech devoted to efforts for peace that the name is used, but I can not understand his complaint. That Germany was once ready for peace means nothing, as, naturally, everybody is always ready for peace on his own terms. The Germans are ready now for peace, but for a truce to enable them to prepare to enforce their terms on the world. There will be no peace so long as Germany is content to be ruled by a military caste."

Cause of King's Death Discussing the reference in the chancellor's speech to the death of the king of Rumania, the mit-ter war trade said:

"Of course, it is quite possible that the strain imposed by the war may have caused his death, as it has been an old man, but it is always possible that the theory of the death may be based on the Bethmann-Hollweg's imagination."

Nearly 400 coal miners were ed to pay 5s ($1.20) each at St.
Staffordshire, England, for negligent work.

When to Save

The best possible time to save money is when you are receiving a steady income and are thus able to so arrange your expenses that there will be a surplus for your Savings Account.

No matter how small the surplus may be at the beginning, it should be deposited with unfailing regularity in a strong financial institution, such as this, which assures absolute safety and 4 per cent quarterly interest.

$1.00 is enough for a start.
